

Sarah counted 5 birds in a tree and 4 more birds eating seeds. How many birds did Sarah see altogether?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

Billy had 5 marbles and then his dad gave him 4 more. How many marbles did Billy have altogether?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

Alvin counted 10 people in a queue, then 2 more came along. How many people were in the queue in total?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

Hope went to the park with 9 friends, then 3 more friends came along. How many people were in the group altogether?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

Theo had 5 toy cars, then he added 7 more. How many cars does that make?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

Ted had 3 sweets, Fred gave him 12 more. How many sweets did Fred have in total?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

Helen went on a boat trip and counted 15 fish, then 1 more fish arrived. How many fish does that make?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

Barnaby Bear had 17 stickers. He went to the shop and bought 2 more.
How many boats does he have in total?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

Harry Potter wished for 13 pencils and 5 pet frogs. How many items did Harry Potter have in total?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

Sam counted 14 kites flying in the sky, then he saw 2 more. How many kites did he see in total?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

Lily saw 16 butterflies on a leaf, then 3 more were added, how many butterflies does that make?

$$\square + \square = \square$$